FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR No. 213

LINCOLN, NEB., SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 6, 1959

SEVEN CENTS

Col. Rawie (r.) and guest, Maj. Gen. Joseph Harper, look at June 6, 1944, newspaper. Gen. Harper, deputy 5th Army commander, will speak at Army ROTC commissioning ceremonies at NU.

Rawie Remembers Colonel's Beachhead D-Day Heroism

By George Moyer

"Men, we're being killed on the beach. Let's go inland and get killed!"

That statement is the most vivid recollection of the D-Day landing on Omaha Beach in Normandy, June 6, 1944, retained by Col. Vernon A. Rawie.

Rawie, commander of the Army ROTC unit at the University of Nebraska, was a lieutenant colonel in the 5th wave that hit the beach that day. The man who made the statement was Col. George

A. Taylor, first Army regimental commander.

"Taylor stood right up on the sea wall in plain sight of everybody including the Germans when he said that," Col. Rawie said. "It was a dangerous thing to do—anything that moved on the beach was getting killed—but he got a demolition battalion up and moving inland. They opened a path and by the end of D-Day, the bridgehead was 1,200 yards inland."

Col. Rawie also remembered that casualties in his regiment, the 16th Infantry

Combat Team, were 40% before they reached the beach.

"The landing craft I was in blew up in the water and I hung onto another from the 6th wave to get to the beach," Col. Rawie said.

"There were 3 sectors to the beach—Omaha Red, Omaha White and Omaha Blue. We had Omaha Red. The German 352nd Division had moved in there the day before for maneuvers and they were waiting for us," Col. Rawie said.

"I had been under heavy fire in both Africa and Italy, occurred to me at the time."

"The water was very choppy that day and all I knew was that I was very seasick. I didn't care who was on that beach or how I got there, I just wanted to get ashore."

June 12 Is Date For Starkweather's Death

By Don Walton

The State Supreme Court Friday ordered that mass slayer Charles Starkweather be put to death next Friday, June 12.

Execution was directed between the hours of 12:01 a.m. and 11:59 p.m.

Acting Penitentiary Warden John Greenholtz said Charles Starkweather will be electrocuted at 12:01 a.m. June 12 or a few minutes thereafter. Greenholtz said he would wire or telephone the same anonymous, out-of-state executioner who came to Lincoln two weeks ago to put Starkweather to death.

The killer's scheduled execution of that date (May 22) was stayed by order of a U.S.

District Court judge only 98 minutes before the switch was to be thrown.

Same Witnesses

The same 6 witnesses will also be notified, Greenholtz said.

"We'll use the very same procedure as before," the warden noted. "Only the hour is changed."

Starkweather had been slated to die shortly after 6 a.m. on the May death date.

Night Favored

Prison officials have been known to favor a night hour for the execution so as to cause the least tension among other Penitentiary inmates.

The Supreme Court issued the new execution order Friday afternoon after Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck requested the high court to set a new date.

4th Date

For Starkweather, it is his fourth date with death.

The redhead, convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of Bennet teenager Robert Jensen, was originally slated to die Dec. 17, 1958.

Execution was stayed by the State Supreme Court upon automatic review of his death-penalty conviction.

The high court then ordered death on March 27.

Reprise

A reprieve was granted by the State Board of Pardons and Paroles which heard his application for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment.

A new date of May 22 was then set by the Board upon denial of Starkweather's plea.

Execution was stayed at 4:22 a.m. on that date upon the order of U.S. District Judge Richard Robinson of Omaha.

Robinson ordered a stay until June 4.

Starkweather then filed with the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals an appeal from the denial of a writ of habeas corpus issued by U.S. District Judge Robert Van Pelt prior to Robinson's order.

The Circuit Court Thursday dismissed the appeal and denied a further stay of execution.

The father of condemned killer Charles Starkweather said Friday he intends to make application to the Lancaster County District Court for a writ of habeas corpus on his son's behalf.

Attorneys have listed such an application as one of the legal avenues still open to the 20-year-old ex-trash hauler who has admitted involvement in 11 killings and has been convicted for one of them.

"Some way, somehow," said Guy Starkweather, "I will make an application—with or without an attorney. If I can't get legal counsel I'll do it the best I can myself."

The elder Starkweather made the disclosure while the State Supreme Court was arranging to set a new execution date for the son.

Approached 7

The father said he has been unable to find a lawyer to take the case although he has approached at least 7 attorneys and his wife also has approached several.

Guy said Charles had urged him prior to the May 22 scheduled execution date to keep trying in legal efforts. Guy said as far as he knows, his son still feels that way.

Starkweather also disclosed he has wired the U.S. Supreme Court concerning the case asking for the high court's intervention.

In Washington, a court spokesman said a telegram was received from the elder Starkweather saying he was mailing some papers relative to his efforts to save his son from the electric chair.

The convicted killer has been working this week on a crayon drawing of an Indian battle which he plans to present to Greenholtz.

Outwardly, Starkweather has remained calm, prison officials said.

Charles Starkweather learned of his new death sentence Friday by radio in his prison death cell.

"I know what you've come to tell me," Acting Penitentiary Warden John Greenholtz quoted Starkweather as saying when the warden stopped by the cell shortly thereafter.

"I already heard it," the redhead said.

Starkweather showed no particular emotion, the warden reported.

Getting Along

"I asked him if there was anything I could do for him but he said he was getting along all right," Greenholtz said.

The convicted killer has been working this week on a crayon drawing of an Indian battle which he plans to present to Greenholtz.

In a telephone interview with a Havana radio station, Lacayo claimed his men are organized on two fronts although no major fighting has started yet. They are stationed at one point about 90 miles from Managua and at another about 110 miles from the capital, he said, and a third front is opening up along the Pacific coast in Leon state.

Information

In Washington the Organization of American States (OAS) decided to ask Caribbean governments for information on the invasion, which began May 31 with the landing of a plane load of rebels from Costa Rica.

The special OAS investigating committee did not announce any specific plans to visit Nicaragua. Uruguayan Ambassador Julio Lacarte, chairman of the 4-nation group, told newsmen its members are receiving information in Washington but cannot help give serious thought to plans for visiting the area, including Nicaragua.

The Army said the mystery wreckage was that of a bomber which left Soluck, Libya, on April 14, 1943, for a high altitude bombing mission against Naples, Italy.

In making public the names of the crewmen, the Army emphasized that the addresses and next-of-kin are taken from 1943 files, presumably outdated in many cases.

It listed these names:

1st Lt. William J. Hutton, pilot, White-

Atlanta Schools Move Step Nearer Integration

EDUCATION OFFICIALS ENJOINED

...From Discriminating

Atlanta (P) — Atlanta school officials Friday were enjoined from discriminating against Negro pupils by a Federal Court which earlier declared the city's segregated schools are illegal.

The injunction was granted by U.S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper who said he would give the city Board of Education a reasonable time in which to submit a plan for integration. He said that any final order would not mean integration next September.

In a statement at the end of the hearing, Hooper said that his final order would cover 3 points:

Discrimination Exists

1. That racial discrimination has and does exist in Atlanta's schools.

2. The plaintiffs would be granted an injunction against this discrimination.

3. That the Atlanta school officials would be allowed a reasonable time to submit a plan for integration.

Hooper heard the case with U.S. District Judge Boyd Sloan who acted in an advisory capacity. At the outset Hooper told the participants that his court has no alternative "except a ruling to the effect that the operation of racially segregated public schools in Atlanta violates the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution."

This was an apparent attempt to forestall any prolonged arguments over the case. However, attorneys for the plaintiffs and for the city insisted on being heard.

Hooper said he was making the statement "in order to clarify the issues," and that such a tentative ruling would not mean immediate integration or closing of Atlanta's schools.

State Funds At Stake

Under state law, any schools ordered integrated would automatically lose state funds and could be closed by the governor to preserve peace and good order.

Subsoil Vapor Cause Of Fatal Gothenburg Blast

The State Fire Marshal's office reported Friday a Gothenburg, Neb., cafe blast and fire May 26 fatal to one-man, was probably caused by an explosive vapor in the basement from a flammable liquid seeping through the brick basement walls.

The blast and fire in the vacated Dixie Cafe building was fatal to Ulysses O. Guignard, a Gothenburg machinist, who was inspecting the building as he was considering buying it.

Fred I. Otte of Minatare, Deputy State Fire Marshal, said the ground on the west side of the building "contained an explosive mixture," probably from a liquid.

Otte found positive readings on a vapor testing instrument at a depth of 3 and one-half feet in the soil on the west side of the building in an area about 150 feet long and 60 feet wide.

He said the vapor, heavier than air, remained in the basement until ignited when the electrical lines into the basement were energized, probably starting compressor motors and turning on lights.

Dynamite On Track; R.I. Rocket Cuts Fuse

Des Moines (P) — A suitcase full of dynamite—capped and fused by an expert, authorities said—was placed on the Rock Island railroad tracks here early Friday, shortly before a Rocket passenger train carrying 200 persons was due over the spot.

The dynamite failed to explode, apparently because the train wheels cut the fuse. None of the passengers was injured. A special car on the train was carrying R. E. Johnson of Chicago, vice president in charge of operations of the Rock Island and a former general manager here.

"The dynamite was put there to blow up the train," investigators said. "It was capped and fused by an expert."

After the train wheels severed the 12-foot fuse and the train had gone on, authorities said, the fuse was lighted again. It went out after burning down to the blasting cap.

West Des Moines Police Chief George Shuck, a demolition expert, said he could not determine what had prevented the fuse from detonating the charge after it was lighted a second time.

"But it's a good thing it didn't go off," he added. "There was enough dynamite there to blow the train into scrap metal. The streamlined train, bound for Chicago, had just left downtown Des Moines.

Sec. Herter Lashes Out At Soviet

Smothering Of West Berlin Is Red Goal

Geneva (P) — U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter Friday scolded Soviet Russia's free-city plan for West Berlin as "a disguise for gradual smothering of the West Berliners' present freedom."

He told the Big 4 foreign ministers conference this Soviet plan to end the Berlin crisis would be a way-station on the road to annexation by Communist East Germany.

Herter, in a hotly worded but coldly delivered speech, lashed Communist East Berlin as "the site of one of the heaviest concentrations of subversive and spying activities in the world." He labeled these "violent, slender, scandalous and dangerous."

The towering diplomat let go a 35-minute attack on Moscow's free-city plan and anti-Western activities in East Berlin as the ministers returned to the Palace of Nations for a plenary working session.

He spelled out what the Western foreign ministers have told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in private—that the United States, Britain and France intend to stay in West Berlin.

OK City's Swap-Work Bid On Drains, Bridge

By Virgil Falloon

The Sanitary District board Friday agreed to a city proposal for a construction work trade on the proposed 52nd and Francis bridge and two drainage projects.

The board authorized an affirmative reply to Public Work Director D. L. Erickson's letter that the District is willing to "proceed immediately" on the proposed agreement.

Under the proposal, the city would construct the $70-

Interest On Debt Nears $8.6 Billion

Washington (UPI) — The Eisenhower administration has revealed a new threat to the President's precariously-balanced fiscal 1960 budget. It said interest on the national debt would climb to an all-time high of $8,600,000.

That would push the cost of running the government a half billion dollars higher than the $77,000,000 estimated by Eisenhower in his budget message to Congress last January.

Administration leaders said, however, that a balanced budget still was possible for the new fiscal year starting July 1. They said tax revenues also were expected to be higher than the president originally had anticipated, — by $600,000,000.

The revised forecasts were disclosed by Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson and Budget Director Maurice H. Stans in secret testimony before the House Ways and Means Committee in the week.

000 bridge over Dead Man's Run in exchange for construction of two drainage projects by the Sanitary District.

The drainage projects, estimated to cost $40,000, are for the No. 48th underpass near the Cornhusker Hwy. and on the University of Nebraska agricultural campus near 47th and Holdrege to Dead Man's Run.

Oppose Sequence
Preceding this action, a group of residents from the 52nd and Francis area appeared before the board in opposition to the bridge "until a storm sewer needed in the area is constructed."

Led by Mrs. Del Eveland of 1930 No. 53rd, the group presented a petition with more than 100 signatures in protest.

A similar petition "with perhaps even more signatures" is to be presented Monday to the City Council, Mrs. Eveland said.

Board member George Knight, who later moved District approval of the city proposal, said "these people are in a regrettable situation."

Drain Not Needed?

"They can't get paved streets until a storm sewer is constructed," Knight said. "I'm no engineer, but I figure the paving would carry off the water. I don't have too much confidence that a storm sewer is needed."

City Engineer Carl Fisher told The Star, however, that a storm sewer in the area is definitely needed before the streets are paved.

"It would be impossible to make the streets or area drain without a storm sewer," he said.

Fisher estimated the cost of the storm project from 57th and Colby to Dead Man's Run at $20,000.

The engineer said a $100,000 appropriation is being proposed in the 1959-60 budget for storm sewers, but said no specific project was earmarked.

Washouts Cited

During the meeting, Mrs. Eveland showed pictures of flood conditions in the area. "Our basements are flooded with even a half-inch rain," she said. "It's a pretty serious situation when garbage cans go floating down the street."

The delegation of women contended the storm sewer should be built before the bridge. Unless the area is drained, one said, no one could reach the bridge anyway.

Knight, along with several other University Place businessmen, has advocated construction of the bridge.

He said it is needed to provide an entrance to the University Place swimming pool off of busy No. 48th street and to permit development of the area.

Knight said construction of the bridge has been pending 5 or 6 years and has been promised by the city.

Misunderstood Case

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

It is surprising to see Sen. Terry Carpenter defending the position of Attorney General C. S. Beck in the Starkweather case. It is surprising because Carpenter should know as well as Beck himself that the position taken by the attorney general in this matter is an impossible one.

Beck being a practicing attorney, a man charged with the full and complete execution of the letter as well as the intent of the law, makes his position even more difficult to understand.

Beck blasted what he presented as interference by the federal court system in the execution of Charles Starkweather. The federal Circuit Court had granted a stay for Starkweather to consider his plea of inadequate legal representation, now turned down. Beck and Carpenter are not the only people who became disturbed over this issue.

The subject has been a good one for frothing editorialists across the nation. Carpenter was even able to find in it a way to attack the governor of Nebraska, the logic of which it would take a genius to figure out. That Starkweather ruthlessly murdered and admitted the killing of 11 innocent people is all this kind of people needs.

With that bit of ammunition they can arouse the emotions of a host of people and have them clamoring for an execution and holding the fanners of their emotions up as the salvation of righteousness. It is easy to breathe fire and brimstone in the castigation of an individual like Charles Starkweather.

It is a simple thing to sit by and demand his death in the face of his overwhelming guilt and conviction. But where in the death of Starkweather do we find any real satisfaction? An example to others of his kind? Yes, but it is not likely to be of any permanent value to any of them. They need much more than a strong example. They are surrounded daily by examples of good, and none of it rubs off on them.

The execution of Starkweather would be little satisfaction to any of those demanding it who might ever find themselves the victim of a miscarriage of justice. The thing that is important in the Circuit Court decision is not its effect upon Starkweather. He will pay for his wanton killings, even though it may take a little time. But what about the next case that might come along for Circuit Court consideration and the cases that will come along in all the future years?

Are those who are now demanding an eye for an eye in all deliberate haste ready to deny everyone the right to appeal to the federal courts? Are they ready to say that the Constitution of the United States means nothing by the fact that there should be no method by which you can secure these rights if they are challenged?

Or perhaps they merely want to determine the issue on an individual basis—each case on its merits, so to speak. If they follow their behavior in the Starkweather case, they would then select themselves or the general public en masse would select those cases which were worthy of federal consideration and those that were not.

What a state of hysteria and inhumanity they would then be heaping upon society!

Not on the basis of fact, not on the basis of accepted legal procedures and standards but, rather, on the basis of what would amount to a public opinion poll would a man's freedom rest. Not just Charles Starkweather but the rights of each and every one of us under all circumstances are tied up in the action of the Circuit Court in this case. These are rights which cannot be given to one man and denied another, regardless of circumstances.

It would be unnatural and inhuman for anyone not to harbor some resentment over the consideration given someone who has shown such a lack of it himself as has Starkweather. But if we let this personal feeling and highly emotional state take precedence over our sound judgment and careful reasoning, we will have lost a thousand times more than will ever be gained by Starkweather's death.

On Following Through

Fifteen years ago this morning—June 6—a vast force of allied troops hit the Normandy beaches and put the name D-Day into history for all time.

It was the beginning of the end for Hitler Germany. It marked the high tide of allied courage and power—this display of military might that took the initiative away from Hitler forever.

The battered Normandy villages that watched the invincible American arms pass through on the way to victory are now largely reconstructed. The meadows again are green and peaceful. But neat cemeteries with their fields of headstones testify at what price.

The United States whispers the name of Normandy with love and pride. A portion of its heart will always reside there. Youth can be so great.

In retrospect D-Day teaches that wars do not end things. They simply alter the equation of human relations, for better or worse.

There Is A Better Way

President Eisenhower told members of the Society of Business Magazine Editors that the limit on the interest rate on the national debt must be raised if the government is to stay out of trouble.

The statement was considered a preliminary to an administration request to Congress to raise the present 4½ per cent interest ceiling—to what extent is not yet known. A one per cent hike ultimately could add nearly $3 billion a year to the cost of managing the national debt.

The President is talking neither good economics nor sound fiscal policy in his surrender on the point of public debt interest. Rather he is reporting on the consequences of a series of the administration's fiscal misadventures to which he would prescribe a remedy whose oversimplification conceals some serious pitfalls.

The blunt truth is, the government which is and should be the biggest and most influential user of hired money, has lost control of the ball. Instead of dominating the credit scene it is being dominated by it. When the President speaks of the necessity of competing with private credit demands he is overlooking the fact that the federal interest is and should be the foundation stone of the whole interest rate structure.

It is not to be expected that a higher federal bond rate will solve the administration's dilemma. A more logical expectation is that when the government interest rate goes up all other interest rates will go up proportionately and the problem of competing in the money market will reappear.

One of the great errors of the administration was the thoughtless curtailing of the federal lending function—a well meant effort to hand credit fields over to private lenders, overlooking the fact that private credit more than had its hands full as it was.

Raising the bond rate is not going to increase the supply of private credit. It will only make the market tighter and work a hardship on private borrowers.

Editorial Of The Day

Guilt By Association

From The Minneapolis Tribune

One of the oldest and least admirable political tricks is based on guilt by association.

The trick is performed by associating one's opponent with some group or individual or issue in a damaging way. The relationship thus established is always a completely phony one; nevertheless the association is made on the chance that it will be politically effective.

Gerald Heaney, DFL national committee man for Minnesota, used this technique Monday night at a Dillon-for-mayor dinner. The trick was to discredit Mayor P. Kenneth Peterson.

Example: Heaney said that if Peterson is re-elected mayor, Wright's hand will be "immeasurably strengthened."

Example: Heaney said that a Peterson victory would give "Wright the same stranglehold over the city council as he has over the state senate."

The sleight-of-hand is simple, is it not? Associate Peterson with Don Wright, no matter how tenuous the relationship. Confuse city issues with state issues until the voter is properly bewildered. Tie Peterson firmly to the sales tax, regardless of how remote the actual connection.

Let us see how the trick would work in reverse if someone in the Peterson camp wanted to do a little guilt-by-association campaigning.

Example: If DFL-endorsed Dillon is elected mayor, this will give encouragement to other Democrats throughout the nation, including Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi, the arch segregationist.

Example: Since Dillon has considerable backing from organized labor, a Dillon victory would probably mean defeat for the Kennedy labor reform bill in Congress, which many labor leaders are opposing.

Popular Singer

Nat King Cole, singer of gentle ballads, found himself in as much demand in South America as in this country. The part of the world that turned a cold shoulder to Vice President Nixon received the singer with outstretched hands. He responded with a great sense of diplomacy. At Caracas, Venezuela, he sang before 8,000 raising funds for homeless children. He added benefit performances later in Uruguay and Argentina, all of them enthusiastically received.

Expect Walkout By End Of June

WASHINGTON — Word has gone out to the nation's steelworkers to be ready to walk off the job at the end of this month. All that remains is formal ratification of a strike by the union's wage policy committee.

At least one wildcat strike has already been reported by Jones and Laughlin, though the news was kept out of the papers. Their Chicago plant was emptied for one afternoon until the union persuaded the workers to go back to their jobs.

Meanwhile, White House aides have advised the steel companies that President Eisenhower won't intervene in the strike unless the national security is threatened. This suits the steel tycoons who have stockpiled enough steel to last three to four months.

Note—On the Senate side, Paul Douglas has demanded a list of all retired officers who work for the 100 biggest defense contractors. He points out that 95 per cent of defense contracts are awarded without competitive bidding. Many of the military men who hold out these multimillion-dollar contracts later go to work for the companies they favored.

Mills Takes Task Of Tax Revision

WASHINGTON — Wilbur D. Mills, a Harvard-educated Arkansan and a little known but immensely influential member of Congress, is about to tackle the Gordian knot of U.S. income tax laws. Success in revising them fairly and realistically will automatically make him one of the great public servants of his generation. Failure will leave us in the present mess of inequities for perhaps another decade.

Mills, as chairman of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, holds a position of almost unique power in the Congress. Only the House of Representatives can, under the Constitution, initiate tax legislation. As chairman of Ways and Means, Mills has the single most decisive voice in determining tax policy.

Early in November Chairman Mills and his committee will begin a detailed study of the entire federal income-tax structure. It may be a boring performance for press and public. It will lack personalities and immediate drama. Yet its results one way or another will greatly affect every citizen and, most especially, every business enterprise.

Mills knows that the job he has undertaken will be a long one. He says that everyone interested will be heard. That in itself is a guarantee of length which have kept the task from being done before now.

Mills knows that the job he has undertaken will be a long one. He says that everyone interested will be heard. That in itself is a guarantee of length which have kept the task from being done before now.

Mills, a solid conservative on any count, is considered by business interests to be a safe man to have handling tax legislation. Nevertheless, he will be under constant pressure from those who hope to maintain their preferred position. He is prepared for it.

He knows that at present some giant interests are so entrenched that their taxes are now almost a matter of a treaty between them and the government rather than taxes based on the economic and social realities of the present day. The government tries to get as much as it can; the interests try to give up only what they must.

Search For Guard Chief Encountering Reluctant Prospects

By Don Walton

Col. William F. Bachman of Omaha has withdrawn his name from consideration as Nebraska's new adjutant general.

Bachman had been considered the top candidate for the post.

The Omaha, commander of the 134th Infantry Regiment of the Nebraska National Guard, has instead accepted a promotion with his present employer, the Omaha Public Power District.

Bachman so informed Administrative Assistant Robert Conrad when the governor's aide contacted him by telephone regarding the position. The Star learned Friday night.

Choice Imminent

Conrad said the new appointee, who will command some 4,000 Guardsmen, will be announced within a few days.

Maj. Gen. Guy N. Henniger is due to retire as adjutant general in July.

However, Holtorf indicated Friday night he would be unable to accept the position if it were offered to him. He declined to say whether Gov. Brooks will make the appointment as commander of the Nebraska National Guard.

A bill which would have boosted the salary to $11,400 was killed by a legislative committee. An attempt to revive the bill on the floor of the Legislature also failed on a 16-20 vote.

The measure, LB563, also would have hiked the salary of the assistant adjutant general from $4,800 to $9,000.

Holtorf Balks

Gering attorney Hans Holtorf, a lieutenant colonel long active in the Guard and a prominent Democrat, has been the subject of considerable speculation as a successor to Henniger.

Among names mentioned for promotion in Guard command circles are Col. Francis Greenleaf of Lincoln and Maj. Harry Dahlgreen of York.

Brooks will make the appointment as commander of the Nebraska National Guard.

Promoted were:

Alumni Responsibility Told In Promoting NU Objectives

The University of Nebraska Alumni Assn. board of directors was reminded Friday of its "obligation to fulfill an extensive program of assistance to our University."

The Alumni Assn. board of directors meeting was held Friday noon as an opener for annual University alumni Round-Up activities.

Arnold Magnuson, executive secretary of the Assn., said that one of the major parts of the program this year was alumni assistance to the University in the recruitment of quality students. Nearly 100 alumni throughout the state have contacted Regents scholarship winners, Magnuson said, and encouraged them to attend the University.

Top-Teacher Pay

A special association committee has continued its study of a plan for endowment funds to grant supplementary salaries to outstanding teachers, Magnuson said.

New alumni chapters have been organized during the past year, Magnuson said. They are located in Franklin, Nuckolls and Webster counties in Nebraska and in Albuquerque, N.M.

PARK MANOR

Heard that Capt. and Mrs. H. Campbell entertained at an informal party at their home last Saturday evening.

On hand for the affair were Capt. and Mrs. Alan Voller, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Violette, Mr. and Mrs. James Chester, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krogman, Dr. and Mrs. William Ballou, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walker.

Motoring to Grand Island, Kearney and Elm Creek during the Memorial Day week end were Mr. and Mrs. Don Shoemaker and their children, Fritz and Kay Ann.

In Elm Creek the family visited with Mr. Shoemaker's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Green.

Arriving in Park Manor last Sunday was Mrs. Robert A. Barlow of Sidney. Mrs. Barlow is the house-guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow.

Mrs. Frank Adamson and her two children, Julie and Roger, of Portsmouth, England, returned to Lincoln this week to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Tallman. The Adamson family had been visiting Mrs. Adamson's and Mrs. Tallman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, in Eldora, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Smith accompanied them to Lincoln.

In August, Mr. Adamson will arrive from Portsmouth to spend a month with his family in the United States before accompanying them home to England.

The newest member of the talcum powder set in Park Manor is Miss Teresa Louise Connealy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Connealy (Nancy Remington), who arrived at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Sunday, May 31. The young Alpha Chi Omega legacy has one sister, Tracy Ann.

Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Arch Connealy, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Remington are the maternal grandparents.

Miss Randi Sue Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cook, celebrated her ninth birthday on Monday, June 1, and in honor of the occasion she was hostess at an after-school party.

PATRICIAN HEIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer are the proud parents of a son, Gregory Lynn, who was born at Providence Hospital on Monday, May 25. Greg has one brother, Donald, Jr.

His paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Masters are the maternal grandparents.

PTA Luncheon

Faculty members of Sheridan PTA will be honored guests on Monday when the PTA executive committee will entertain at luncheon. The affair will be held at Tillman's Plaza.

This is a more-of-everything morning — more guests, more homecomers, more parties and such and things. —Before we open our brides' book we have some guests to mention—Understand that Mrs. Wayne Eisenhart and her son, Daniel, have come from Mitchell to spend the summer as the guests of Mrs. Eisenhart's parents, Judge and Mrs. John Yeager.

Mrs. Eisenhart, however, has a busy summer planned. She will attend the University of Nebraska summer session, and in the fall will be a member of the Dunbar schools faculty.

A notation on our calendar of Sunday activity tells us that another courtesy has been added to the long list of parties for Miss Suzanne Swingle whose marriage to Veldon Lewis will take place next Friday afternoon.

Miss Swingle and Mr. Lewis will be complimented on Sunday when the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Swingle, are host and hostess at a 12:15 o'clock luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club.

Out of town guests at the party will include Mr. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Veldon A. Lewis of Fremont; Miss Swingle's sister, Mrs. Wayne Morrison (Kathryn Swingle) of Denver, and young David Morrison, and Mrs. Charles Baer and her daughter, Martie, of Hinsdale, Ill.

The last of the courtesies for Miss Swingle will be on her wedding day when Mrs. Tom Olson of Smyrna, Tenn., and her mother, Mrs. O. A.

is taking her—and for goodness sakes, take her!

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband had an affair with a married woman in his office. We almost settled it in the divorce court but because three children were to be considered we changed our minds. He doesn't see her any more and has been trying hard to make it up to me. I am trying to forget the past, too. But, Abby when he takes me in his arms and kisses me, my heart aches because I know he is thinking of her. Can you help me?

ACHING HEART

DEAR ACHING: Unless you enjoy making yourself miserable, don't go in for mind reading. Maybe he's thinking what an angel you are!

DEAR ABBY: I love children but enough is enough. A family moved next door to me and the first day, a little boy rapped on my back door and said he smelled I was making "something good." I was baking cookies, so when they were done I gave him some. Now, almost every afternoon he raps on my kitchen door. If I don't answer it, he goes to the front and rings my bell. He asks me to give him "something good." Sometimes I am napping, or on the telephone, or busy, but he rings until I appear. His mother has never spoken to me—she just nods and waves. How can I handle this problem? It's like feeding a stray cat. Once you do it, there's no end.

MRS.

DEAR MRS. S.: It's time you spoke to his mother. She probably doesn't know her son is disturbing you. If, after you tell her, the boy persists, then it's up to you to tell him (nicely), "When I have 'something good' I'll call YOU—don't call ME."

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

About Face, Mom!

Lighted candles and arrangements of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums formed the background for the wedding of Miss Connie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Jones, and Stephen L. Girardot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Girardot, which was an event of Friday evening, June 5, at the Westminster Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Calvin Ukem solemnized the 8 o'clock service, and Miss Josephine Waddell, who played the wedding music, also accompanied the vocal soloist, Mrs. Melvin Bellinger.

The maid of honor, Miss Jean Girardot of Minneapolis, and Miss Ruthie Martin, the bridesmaid, appeared in alike sheath frocks of petal pink cotton, designed with square necklines and sashed with pink chiffon back panels. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of sweetheart roses and carnations.

LA Jinx On Spahn Continues

Milwaukee (P) — The Los Angeles Dodgers continued their long-time hex over Milwaukee's Warren Spahn Friday night as Johnny Podres spaced 7th hits for a 5-1 victory over the Braves.

The 4th-place Dodgers closed to within 4½ games of the National League leading Braves by rapping Spahn for 9 hits and 4 of their runs in the 7th innings that he worked before County Stadium's largest crowd since the opening day—30,826.

The Dodgers, the only team with a life-time edge over Spahn have defeated him 27 times while losing only 14 down through the years.

Spahn dropped his second straight decision of the season to the Dodgers while failing to notch his 254th National League victory. He is 7-6 for the season.

Podres, a curve-ball left-hander, struck out 5 while walking only one in registering his 6th victory against two defeats.

The Dodgers wasted little time getting to Spahn scoring a run in the first inning, two in the second and a 4th in the 5th.

Jim Gilliam doubled on the first pitch of the game and scored on Gil Hodges single. The Braves tied it in the same inning on a double by Casey Wise, an infield out that got Wise to 3rd and a sacrifice fly by Hank Aaron.

—Emergency Situation—

Hoppers Moving Into Part Of Cheyenne Co.

... Ranchers Seek Spray Control Program

Sidney, Neb. (AP)—County Agent Ivan Liljegren has declared a grasshopper emergency in northwest Cheyenne County.

"Hoppers in the most severe area—about 10 miles north of Potter and about 9 miles west of Dalton—are up to 500 per square foot," Liljegren reported.

They were first spotted in the borrow pits and roadways but they have started to move into the wheat, he said, warning that "they will destroy it unless sprayed immediately."

"There are literally thousands per square yard. The ground buzzes when you walk," Liljegren said. "I have never seen them so thick."

2 Precincts Hit

The grasshopper emergency area includes only two precincts but the county agent said that as many as 60 sections in northwest Cheyenne County should be checked.

Ranchers in Cheyenne County have asked that nearly 100,000 acres be included in a federal and state grasshopper spray control program that includes only ranch land. It would not affect the area now having the hopper outbreak, Liljegren said.

At one place along a roadway he said he spotted 70 hoppers on one leaf of wild lettuce only about two inches long and one inch wide. "Some people may say this is mathematically impossible, but I can prove it. I don't know how they could all get on but they did. They were literally standing on top of each other," he said.

Showers Likely For Weekend

Scattered showers and thunderstorms are expected to be widespread on Saturday covering the area from the northern Cascades to Montana, through the Rockies and central and southern Plains. Showers and thunderstorms are also forecast for parts of the Mississippi Valley, upper Lakes, Gulf states and in the Appalachians. Most of the nation will continue warm. (AP Wirephoto Map)

House Tentatively Approves $1 Billion Public Works Bill

Washington (UPI) — The House Friday tentatively approved a $1,177,252,000 public works appropriation bill carrying funds for planning or construction of 50 projects for which President Eisenhower budgeted no money.

Included was $5,733,000 to begin construction of 7 new reclamation projects west of the Mississippi, where development of water resources has strong voter appeal.

The new reclamation projects for which the bill carried construction funds included Red Willow Dam and Reservoir in Nebraska, $525,000.

In his budget for the fiscal year starting July 1, the President ruled against any new reclamation, harbor or flood control projects.

Democrats have made no secret of the fact that they felt congressional rejection of the President's no-new-start policy would help develop for them a good 1960 campaign.
